

Q You remember your husband telling Everett he could live there as long as he paid the taxes and kept the place up?

A No, sir, never heard him say that.

Q You didn't hear that conversation? A. No.

Q Where did you sign the deed, Mrs. Gregory?

A Some law office. I don't know which one now.

Q Here in Frederick? A. Yes. . .

Q Was it Mr. Storm's office?

A I really don't know. I don't remember.

Q Do you know who had the deed prepared?

A. No, I don't know the name.

Q But you and James came to Frederick to some lawyer's office and signed the deed? A. Yes.

Q Do you recall who was with you at that time?

A Just the three of us: Everett, Jim and myself.

Q Everett and James and yourself. And you don't recall the office to which you went?

A No, I don't.

Q Do you recall the Notary who took the acknowledgment?

A No, I couldn't tell you the name to save my life.

Q Where did you and James move then after the property was sold?

A It was called Rock Spring farm the other side of Rockville - between Rockville and Norbeck.

Q How far is that from the property that you sold to Everett?

A Oh, I would say around between 25 and 28 miles.

Q Some distance then? A. Yes.

Q Now after the sale was made or the deed was given how long did you remain on the premises?

A Oh we had moved from the premises before we sold it.

Q Before you sold it? Do you know how long before?

A Either a year or between a year and two years, I don't know exactly.
